

Looking at my professional life as a teacher educator

Standard _____

What does this standard mean to you?
How have you addressed this standard yourself?
If you were putting together a review of your own, what indicators would you consider appropriate?
What artifacts would be available from your professional life?
To which indicators might the artifacts align themselves?
What other items might be added to the list of indicators and artifacts that would be appropriate for you?	