

ASSOCIATION OF TEACHER EDUCATORS THE PROFESSION OF TEACHER EDUCATION: A National Conversation on the ATE Teacher Educator Standards

This webinar brings together a panel of nationally recognized scholars, practitioners, and leaders in teacher education for a national conversation on the ATE Teacher Educator Standards.

Panelists will explore how the standards can be applied across educator preparation programs, professional learning, program design, and policy contexts. Participants will gain insight into how the standards support individual teacher educator practice while advancing quality, coherence, and long-term sustainability across teacher education systems.
