

Participate in ATE's 2025 Marvin A. Henry Preservice Teacher Program!

 Date: Friday, September 19, 2025

 Time: 12:00 – 4:00 PM Eastern Time

 Location: Online

 Registration Fee: $35 (Due by September 5 — registration info coming soon!)

 Who Should Attend: All undergraduate and graduate education students

The Association of Teacher Educators (ATE) Preservice Teacher Program is back for 2025 — and it's going virtual! This dynamic annual event is designed especially for future educators looking to gain real-world insight and high-energy, research-driven strategies for the classroom.

Why Attend?

- Get energized: Learn how to Make Your Teaching Come Alive with humor and motivation
- Discover essential Instructional Strategies and Classroom Management Techniques
- Engage with Nationally Recognized Leaders and Expert Teachers
- Master Student Engagement Techniques that truly work
- Understand the power of Data-Based Decisions to enhance student learning
- Explore how to Differentiate Instruction for diverse learners
- Learn innovative methods for Quality Education and Shaping the Future
- And much more!

This is an incredible opportunity to network, grow professionally, and prepare for a successful teaching career — all for just $35!

Please spread the word to education students and colleagues. We look forward to seeing you there!