ATE State Unit Innovations Webinar

What's working across ATE's state units—and what ideas could strengthen yours?

Join the Association of Teacher Educators (ATE) for a special one-hour webinar on September 30, 2026, highlighting innovative programs, promising practices, and successful strategies being advanced by ATE state units across the country.

Leaders from VACTE, NYSATE, PACTE, and TXATE will share examples of initiatives that are engaging members, developing future leaders, strengthening professional learning, elevating advocacy, and building meaningful partnerships. This is an opportunity to learn directly from colleagues who are putting creative ideas into action—and to consider how those ideas might be adapted or expanded within your own state unit.

Whether you are a state unit leader, an active member, or simply interested in new ways to strengthen teacher education, this webinar will offer practical ideas, fresh perspectives, and opportunities for greater collaboration across the ATE community.

Come ready to learn, connect, and be inspired. Together, we can strengthen our state units—and amplify the collective impact of teacher educators nationwide.
